HEAVENSAKE JUNMAI GINJO

Urakasumi, a brewery founded in 1724, partnered with Regis Camus to create this eyebrow-raising junmai ginjo. Revel in the unusual but pleasing nose of light lemon zest and crème brûlée. Blending into the gentle almost-butterscotch flavor, the scent is spirited with notes of raisin, going surprisingly well with raw fish dishes and ceviche. Saké of this quality is dynamic in its pairing, you simply need your taste buds to guide you.

ORIGIN OF PURITY JUNMAI GINJO GENSHU

Omachi rice, milled to 55%, undiluted. This process leaves an incredibly expressive nose, full of tropical fruits, combined with the likes of cream soda and anise. One of the most interesting sakés carried at KOYO, Origin of Purity Junmai Ginjo Genshu is fun, dynamic and creative in its pairing, with the finishing sip lasting longer than those more traditional sakés.

DASSAI 45 JUNMAI DAIGINJO

With a collection of sweet aromas, including grape juice, cotton candy, and a hint of lemonade, Dassai 45 is a saké with body. Full-figured in flavor that rushes chewy fruit tones to all corners of your mouth, it is wide and heavy, with lots of expansive elements that talk to those who like a mouthful. Pay attention to those hints of anise and sneaky mild veggie aftertaste, with the subtle sweetness of grapes and berries becoming more pronounced as the liquid warms in the mouth.

KOYŌ

GEKKEIKAN NIGORI SAKE

Nigori translates to 'cloudy' - perfectly depicting this style of sake in its thicker, creamier texture and milk-like appearance. The cloudiness comes from the rice sediment which remains in the saké after it has been passed through a special coarse-mesh filter. Characteristically sweet with a creamy medium-body, it boasts hints of honey and tropical fruit, with a long finish.

OKUNOMATSU TOKUBETSU JUNMAI

A brewery nestled in nature, in an ideal environment for brewing and storing saké, the snow that falls on Mount Adatarata melts, sinking deep into the earth and trickling down the mountain over 40 years to become a pure, clear water source. With an abundant mineral balance, this sake variety's elegant floral aromas and mouth-watering fruity flavors offer a crisp, lingering finish you'll never tire of.

BOTTLE (720ML) AED990

HEAVENSAKE 12

One of the world's first Franco Japanese sake, Heavensake Junmai 12 is the tandem creation of French Cellar master, Regis Camus and the team at Konishi. Delivering a nutty nose with a unique salted caramel undertone, its light body is filled with savoury goodness, leaving a crisp finish. Heavensake Junmai 12 comes off clean from the first sip, and is ideal served chilled or over ice.

BOTTLE (720ML) AED1,095

DASSAI 45 SPARKLING JUNMAI DAIGINJO

The family-owned brewery located in Yamaguchi Prefecture produces superb, premium sakés, attaining the top-notch "Junmai Daiginjo" level. A first-class Junmai Daiginjo sparkling saké with a fruity sweetness and creamy texture, this saké is a perfect match for any meal.

BOTTLE (720ML) AED935

SACRED POWER JUNMAI GINJO

Developed by the Chiyonosono brewery, one of the very few breweries to revitalize the use of the heirloom rice, Kumamoto Shinriki, after 100-50 years, Shinriki means "Sacred Power". It represents the bold, briny ocean flavors present in this is a rich, full flavored sake, boasting fresh-cut grass aromas and hints of tropical fruits.
